

Available Position High School Math Teacher (1.0 FTE)

At Kenneth Gordon Maplewood School (KGMS), we believe that every child is unique and that their differences should be celebrated. We believe in an innovative approach to education that's forward-thinking yet rooted in history. We believe that every child deserves to fit in, to feel like they're on the inside.

This position is to work as a member of KGMS' high school (grade 9-12) teaching team in the Math area. Teaching responsibilities include whole-class instruction, as well as individual and small group instruction of students who need specialized programming and instruction. The ideal candidate will have a broad range of academic qualifications and teaching skills in order to meet the needs of students in core areas of the curriculum. Special Education qualifications and knowledge of the Orton-Gillingham approach would be considered assets.

In collaboration with co-teachers, teacher responsibilities include (but are not limited to):

- Use of a variety of instructional techniques and modalities, including technologies, that are suitable to the age, needs, readiness and abilities of students and the subject matter being taught within the School Program;
- Working to develop skills and stimulate thought through student centred experiences and activities, with due consideration for individual differences, including Orton-Gillingham methodologies and the School Program;
- Adaptation and modification of instruction to suit the diverse learning styles of students;
- Creation, monitoring and evaluation of student Individual Education Plans in collaboration with a student's school based team;
- Cooperation and collaboration with colleagues and associated personnel in utilizing existing educational services and resources for the benefit of the students;
- Participation in the development and implementation of the philosophy and practices of the School and work in co-operative ways with colleagues to promote the welfare of students;
- Maintaining appropriate, accurate records of student achievement, attendance and other necessary data
